	NAME	ADDRESS

6.	Solicitor General, U.S.,	Room 5614, Dept. of Justice 950 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. Washington D.C. 20530-0002

IV. THE DATE UPON WHICH SAID VIOLATION OCCURRED April 10, 1996, date of enactment of the P.L.R.A. of 1995; Signed by President Clinton.

V. STATE BRIEFLY THE GROUNDS ON WHICH YOU BASE YOUR ALLEGATION THAT YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS ARE BEING VIOLATED:

GROUND ONE: "Constitutional Citizen" U.S.

(Born in Syracuse, N.Y., 11-16-1966, during Viet Nam War, to an Active Services father, U.S.M.C.)

STATE BRIEFLY THE FACTS WHICH SUPPORT THIS GROUND. (State as best you can the time, place and manner and person involved.)

Constitutional citizens are "federal citizens" first, not "state citizens" first. They have different legal duties and obligations. Plaintiff herein was born as a "military citizen" and "federal New York citizen;" and therefore, he goes by U.S. policies, presidential policies, DOJ policies, etc. (County, city, state policies are "estopped!")

GROUND TWO: "Republican Citizen" as defined in U.S. Constitution. Republican Party government citizen. (Does not recognize Democratic government policies/laws.)

SUPPORTING FACTS: At age 18, plaintiff registered as a "Republican Party" citizen, and supported President George Bush. Also, did a lot of political party work. All of plaintiff's work from 1980 to 2007 has been designed to promote Republican Party rights identified under the U.S. Constitution. The privilege of Republican laws or policies, over non-Republican laws or presidential policies, is my "right."

GROUND THREE: "White Citizen" as Defined by the Common Laws of the U.S. (Not a "Black Citizen" or "Oriental Citizen" or an "I.N.S./Foreign Citizen" to the U.S.). Confederate Rights.

SUPPORTING FACTS: The "Separate But Equal Doctrine" is what I have been following; ^{CA} 1890's. I did not consent to Brown vs. Board of Education "nationwide integration." I did not consent to President Kennedy/President Johnson, for 1964-1968 Civil Rights Acts for "non-whites." I have only been practicing white laws, and have not been advocating the rights of Negroes/Black Americans. Opposed to Blacks being in charge of U.S.; I am for "Confederate Law" in South, not Washington D.C. laws, due to opposition to the Confederate states' admission to Union.

VI. STATE BRIEFLY EXACTLY WHAT YOU WANT THE COURT TO DO FOR YOU.
MAKE NO LEGAL ARGUMENT. CITE NO CASES OR STATUTES.

- a. This is a challenge to the PLRA of 1995 and the AEDPA. A federal law may be contested or excluded based upon: (a) unlawful law, or (b) unlawful application to any legal class of citizens. 28 U.S.C. § 2403(a). The PLRA is a "Confederate Law" or a "Black Law" and does not apply to real citizens (Constitutional citizens), military citizens (presidential citizens), or to Whites not consenting to Black Rights laws.
- b. Venue is valid in the U.S. Eleventh Circuit, as a "Confederate Law" case and a Browder Bussing Law case. X ID# 883777EA3, FBI number, Honolulu.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. (28 U.S.C. §1746.)

* Class-Action Case, "Imminent Injury"

Pro Se Motion For A Report And Recommendation of Complaint, Pending Appeal.

On March 23, 2006, at 10:02 AM, Debra P. Hackett, Clerk, the district court "Received" a 42 U.S.C. §1983 "multi-venue" complaint. The complaint was cancelled as to date, above, and returned by the Clerk on March 28, 2006. The plaintiff timely appealed on April 13, 2006, at Atlanta, GA; Angela B. Mitchell, Deputy Clerk. Within thirty days of the original filing date, March 23, 2006, a party may move for a Report and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge, before a formal appeal is taken. FRAP 4(a)(4)(A)(i), factual findings. The district clerk's instructions have been complied with, and the original documents have been resubmitted to this Court. See Exhibits A-H, reviewed on April 24, 2006. Rule 52(b), findings.

The original complaint, Exhibit "F" has been reviewed and revised to April 24, 2006, as attached. An I.F.P. application, 28 U.S.C. §1915, as amended, was signed and dated on March 31, 2006. The application was then reviewed on April 24, 2006, with changes made thereon. The CCA prison staff will not permit photocopies of the documents to be made, nor allow a printout of the ledger account to be reported. Defendants will not settle out of court, and will not release the plaintiff at Mississippi. The defendants refuse to settle monies or costs herein out of court. The United States owes the cost of the filing fee, not the plaintiff. Statutory jurisdiction of the causes are based on 42 U.S.C. §1981-1988; and 28 U.S.C. §1343, the civil rights statutes. President Clinton signed into law the P.L.R.A. of 1996, and the Amended In Forma Pauperis Act, which estops or cancels civil rights, while under U.S. detention. See Rivera V. Allin, 144 F.3d 719 (11th Cir. 1998). The P.L.R.A. is non-applicable to: U.S. citizens, U.S. citizens from the original or founding states, U.S. citizens on military duty or civil U.S. Service duty, U.S. citizens pending trial (pre-trial §1983 cases), U.S. political prisoners (e.g., M.L.King), undercover agents in jail, C.I.A. protestors or U.S. citizens alleging 1949 Geneva Conventions immunity. (Claim I.)

A cause of action can be made out at Alabama, based on the Mississippi-Alabama-Hawaii contracts. However, a cause of action can be made out in the U.S. Eleventh Circuit, based on: (1) "Confederate retaliation," (2) K.K.K.-style incidents, (3) black peoples' rights and issues, (4) a challenge to the constitutionality of 42 U.S.C. §1983 in prisons or jails (slavery law), (5) MLK law; and (6) substitute venue at Georgia in lieu of New Orleans, for major civil rights violations of plaintiff at Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Mississippi. 28 U.S.C. §1407(a). (Claim II.)

A co-case to the complaint at bar is 5:06-cv-0057-C, Northern District of Texas, Lubbock Division. This court shall take judicial notice of the claims therein. As Hawaii and Texas waived their own venues, and the present state, Mississippi, waived its jurisdiction, transfer to Alabama and Georgia for asylum and release may be pursued, 28 U.S.C. §1407. Upon transfer to Georgia, the plaintiff may plead unlawful arrests at Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Tennessee, Arizona, and other states; and at Mississippi, 2004 to 2006. "Underground railroad law" and white slavery law claims are governing. (Claim III). U.S. V. Jones, 722 F.2d 632 (11th Cir. 1983).

The final claim in this lawsuit is that President Clinton and governors Barbour, Riley and Lingle, are using the plaintiff to challenge the Montgomery, Alabama bussing cases, Browder Panel Cases, 142 F. Supp. 707 (M.D. Ala. 1956), aff'd 352 U.S. 903, 77 S. Ct. 145, 1 L. Ed. 2d 114 (1956). Using Alabama and Mississippi to challenge inmate bussing will subject the defendants to venue in Alabama and Georgia. Venue is therefore valid. (Claim IV.)

WHEREFORE, this complaint is of merit under Rule 12(b)(6), and a Report and Recommendation shall prospectively be entered on the causes, for purposes of appellate review. (Fed.R. Civ.P. 11.)
 Dated: Tutwiler, Mississippi, April 24, 2006. 28 U.S.C. §1746.

Notice of Appeal
Re: Cause 2:06-cv-000-JAD

To So Petitioner's Notice of Appeal

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the police officer, Petitioner and Respondents, in the above named suit, hereby appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit at Atlanta, GA. The basis for appeal is the U.S. District Clerk's refusal to file the 42 U.S.C. § 1983 lawsuit based on the P.L.R.A. of 1996.
2. The P.L.R.A. is a "Confederate Law" and is unlawful. Also, the Civil Rights Act of 1875 does not extend into the Confederate South. The law only protects Northerners. Confederate States have no jurisdiction over prisoners from other states under the Civil War of 1861-1865. Confederate States are still U.S. enemies under international law.
3. Petitioner is a victim of Confederate War Crimes, 1996-2002. Petitioner is for the Confederate States of America (CSA) and against the U.S. Government. Several "Access Corps" will be provided either on the P.L.R.A.'s jurisdiction.

RESPECTFULLY APPEARED. March 2, 2006.
